

As a part of the intervention activities, the museum has been carrying out various programmes to enhance the cultural identity of marginalized communities through their cultural skills, traditions and performances. Under its programme on Identity and Development, workshops like Zindagi Nadi Kinare (with the Nishads) and Hunar (with the various marginal communities of Shahabpur, a village in Allahabad), were organized in the last few years.