

Manav Vikas Sangrahalaya

Acquisition Policy

All acquisitions at Manav Vikas Sangrahalaya are made by researchers of the Institute under different research projects. The museum collects artefacts for its permanent collections in the form of apparatus, models, instruments, paintings, drawings, photographs, prints, decorative arts, memorabilia, audiovisual materials, and documentary written materials etc. Objects have been acquired from field and private individuals in the form of gifts, donation, and exchanges with other repositories. Due to paucity of funds, the museum is unable to expand or periodically change its exhibitions, or digitize the museum.
